

KLove is an important part of my community. It provides positive & encouraging news coverage and it also plays clean and appropriate songs that do not mention violence, drugs, or sex. If replaced by an LPFM broadcaster, I believe it would negatively influence our local community. It is in the public's best interest to continue with services like KLove because it is a positively focused media in a world that is focused on fear based, negative media coverage. Help change this!